Net interest income

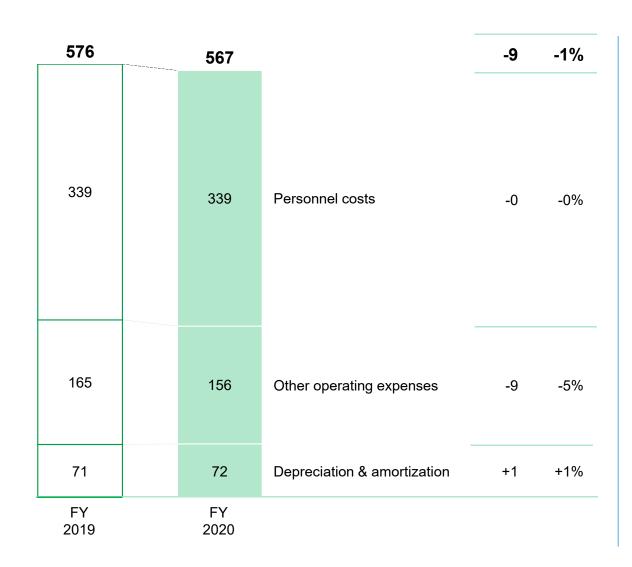

- Net interest income Down (explanation below)
- Commissions & fees Down due to fewer personal banking transactions and voluntary reduction in Trade Finance exposure
- Trading Increase amid higher market volatility
- Other income Decrease compared with 2019, which included a non-recurring payout on a holding
- NII before loan impairment charges/reversals – Down due to the ongoing negative-interest-rate environment and voluntary reduction in Trade Finance activity
- Loan impairment charges/reversals Increase due to isolated cases of defaulting companies, mainly in H1

Operating expenses, depreciation and amortization

CHF millions (rounded)

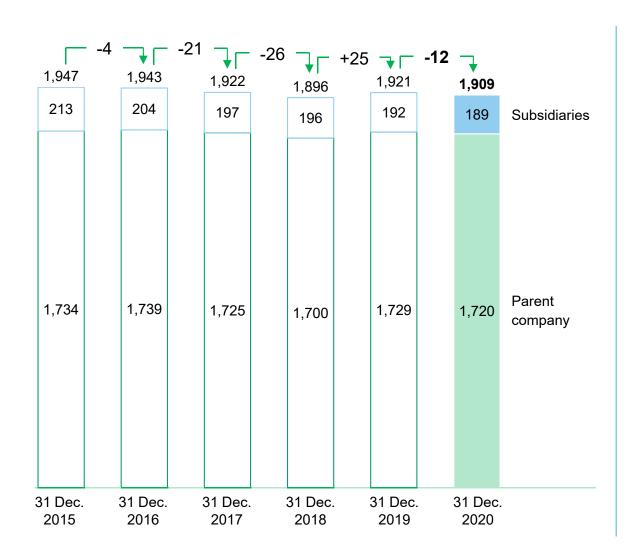

- Continued firm control of operating expenses
- Personnel costs stable
- Other operating expenses down thanks to lower IT running costs and reduced marketing expenses in the Covid-19 environment

FY 2020 financial results
Thomas W. Paulsen, CFO

Conclusion Pascal Kiener, CEO

Swiss and Vaud GDP growth

- In 2020: Swiss and Vaud GDP may shrink by 3.1% and 3.4%, respectively, which is nevertheless not as bad as other Western countries
- Relatively low visibility on how the pandemic will develop

Note

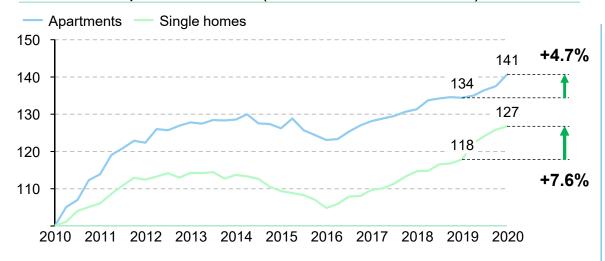

(1) SECO = Switzerland's State Secretariat for Economic Affairs

(2) CREA = Lausanne University's Créa Institute of Macroeconomics

Real estate in Vaud

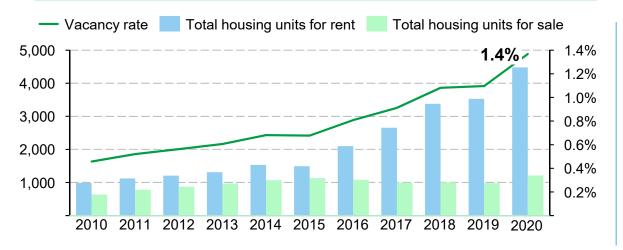

Transaction prices in Vaud (Basis 100 in Dec. 2010)

- Prices on Vaud real-estate transactions have increased steadily in 2020
 - Up 4.7% on apartments
 - Up 7.6% on single-family homes
- Heightened competition
 - Driven by low-interest-rate offers
 - Non-bank competitors

Vacant housing in Vaud

- A larger supply of rental housing is pushing up the vacancy rate
- BCV's mortgage policy remains clearly focused on loan quality instead of volume growth
- Targeting geographical areas with low vacancy rates
- Cautious stance on the private buy-to-let segment

BCV Investor Relations iPad¹ App

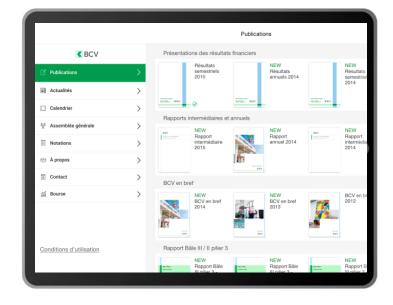

Our BCV Investor Relations app keeps you in touch with the latest developments at BCV Group

It brings together everything of interest to shareholders, investors and analysts, including:

- An overview of BCV
- Our key figures
- Annual and interim reports
- Press releases
- Pillar 3 reports
- Sustainability reports
- Presentations for investors

The app also displays upcoming BCV events that you can add to your calendar at the push of a button. Shareholders can read the agenda for the next AGM and download all the relevant documents. The app displays BCV's credit rating, as well as credit opinions on the Bank. You can also contact BCV's Head of Investor Relations, whose email and phone number you'll find in the app.
